Dear Property Owner:

Our records indicate that you currently receive "Agricultural Classification" on the above referenced property. In order to continue this exemption, please sign this letter and return it to our office.

If you are no longer eligible for this classification please contact the Property Appraiser's Office immediately.

This classification is not automatically renewed. Failure to return this letter may result in the removal of your agricultural classification.

I hereby affirm that I am eligible for the classification listed above and that the use of the property has not changed from agricultural use last year.
